SCORPION EXO-1000 AIR

£299.99

TRANAM.CO.UK

The Scorpion EXO 1000 Air is the only helmet on the market to feature Airfit technology, allowing you a custom fit with air-adjustable cheek pads that also reduce wind noise. A tri-composite shell looks after your noggin, and has been wind tested and aero-tuned. A Top-Gun style retractable visor helps with varying light conditions, and the main visor itself features SpeedShift – a quick release system. KwikWick technology helps with sweat and moisture, while the excellent ventilation system keeps you cool.

HAIRY RS 1/5 THROTTLE

£24.99

HAIRY-RS.COM

Tireless gear changes take a toll on trackdays, and full-on quick action throttles are expensive and tricky to fit. This little nugget of trick plastic is a 1/5 turn throttle cam from Hairy Rs. It takes around half an hour to fit and is pretty easy to install yourself. This is going on Al's GSX-R 600, but they're ready to slot into most sportsbikes.

EVOTECH FILLER CAP

£80.00

EVOTECH-RC.IT

Not always recommended for the road, but essential for trackdays and racing, quick release gas caps like this Evotech item look dam fly and minimise spillage – not to mention taking risks away from damaging the ignition key and scuffing the tank. It's CNC machined from solid aircraft-grade aluminium billet and there are a massive 36 different colour combinations. Although you use the original tank bolts, there's the option to use ergal bolts to further jazz-up your ride. Can you have too many choices in life?

ARC-ON GLOVES

£140.00

ARC-ON.CO.UK

An emerging British company, arc-on offer this superb spec glove at an unbelievable price. The Competizione is a full kangaroo hide construction and the use of abrasion-resistant stingray skin counteracts nasty Tarmac. There's also beefy titanium and carbon knuckle armour, and the little/ring finger are bridged.

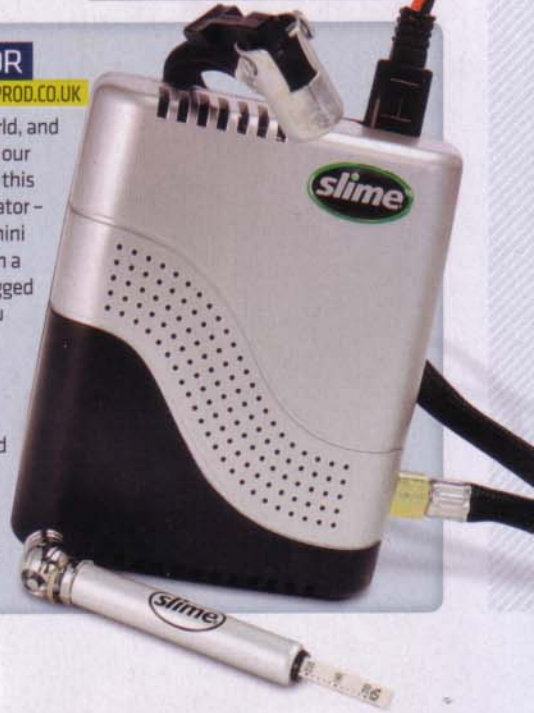

SLIME INFLATOR

£35.00

OXPROD.CO.UK

Big in the cycling world, and now crossing over to our side, Slime gives you this Power Sport tyre inflator – essentially a 300psi mini compressor. It comes in a handy, compact and rugged case with everything you need to get some emergency air into your hoops. It features interchangeable power connectors (bike battery and 12v) with an 18-inch hose, and also comes with a pencil-type gauge. The whole kit weighs just under a kilo. Clever stuff.

Renapur Cleaner

£24.00

RENAPUR.COM

Get your leathers, boots and gloves blinged-up with this leather care kit. Renapur has been around for 20 years and one pot could last you between five and ten years of cleanliness.

Slime Puncture Kit

FROM £12.99

OXPROD.COM

Getting stuck on the side of the road with a puncture sucks. Slime will get you to a more permanent solution, remaining as a liquid to treat punctures. Guaranteed for two years.
